About Krupp Brothers

Dr. Jan Krupp was a San Francisco-area physician with a love of farming and wine. He moved to Napa Valley in 1991, and he and his brother Bart began to develop vineyards, including the iconic Stagecoach Vineyard. In 1999, they created their first wine, Veraison Cabernet Sauvignon. Jan continues to manage Stagecoach, sourcing the finest grapes for Krupp Brothers. Today, each wine in our collection – from our mountain Chardonnay to our Rhone-style Syrah and Tempranillo-based red – continue to embody the passion, vision and perseverance that has guided the brothers since they planted the first vines.
