ABOUT KRUPP BROTHERS

Dr. Jan Krupp was a San Francisco-area physician with a love of farming and wine. In 1991, he moved to Napa Valley, where he and his brother Bart began to develop vineyards, including the iconic Stagecoach Vineyard. Krupp Brothers selects the finest grapes from Stagecoach and Krupp Brothers Vineyards. Today, each wine in our collection — from our mountain Chardonnay to our Rhone-style Syrah and Tempranillo-based red — continues to embody the passion, vision and perseverance that has guided the brothers since they planted the first vines.

DESIREE O'DONOVAN WINEMAKER

Raised in the California Wine Country, Desiree was studying for a career in dentistry when a part-time job at a local winery opened her eyes to her true passion.

After completing internships at several notable local wineries, she began her career at a Napa custom crush facility, where she became the Assistant Winemaker. There she had the opportunity to learn different winemaking styles and work with many boutique wineries, including Krupp Brothers. Impressed by her talent and dedication, Desiree was one of Dr. Krupp's first hires when Krupp Brothers had the opportunity to move to its own winery facility.
