

KRUPP BROTHERS

As Brand Ambassador, Sandy travels from her home in Dallas throughout the country, imparting her passion for food and wine and sharing the story of Krupp Brothers. With her boundless energy, huge smile and personality to match, her favorite part of the job is meeting people from different walks of life who are passionate about what they do. Her energy inspires people everywhere.

Sandy has more than 20 years experience in the wine, food and hospitality industry. While overseeing the Fine Wine portfolio for Republic Beverage Company in Texas, she was introduced to Krupp Brothers wines and met Joshua and Jan Krupp.

When she is not traveling and sharing Krupp Brothers wines, she loves playing with her dogs, Skylar and Graci, spending time with her nieces and nephews and enjoying a glass or two of Synchrony.
